PLACES TO GO AND THINGS TO SEE, NEAR AND FAR

BREAK ON THE LAKE

Once exclusive to University of California affiliates and conference attendees, the UCLA Lake Arrowhead Lodge opened its doors to the public a few years ago. Accommodations on the 52-acre property—which originated as a resort for Hollywood stars in the early 1920s—range from single rooms to cottages and chalets with 2 to 4 bedrooms. Most rooms feature a wood-burning fireplace and sweeping mountain, lake, or forest views. During your getaway, take a walk in the woods or play bocce, tennis, or pickleball. In colder months, warm up with a bowl of the dining room's signature butternut squash soup or soak in the lodge's indoor hot tub beside a fire blazing in the stone hearth.

Nearby activities include shopping and dining at Lake Arrowhead Village, paddleboat tours on the lake, and winter skiing and sledding. Lodge rates start at $290 plus a daily $30 resort fee. Closed to the public from mid-June through early September. ➤ SUSAN LENDROTH
